Join us for a fundraising event to support the largest TAHMA event of the year! While enjoying lunch, you may bid on auction items, win raffle prizes and mingle with others interested in the Triangle hospitality industry. This annual fundraiser helps raise funds for two scholarships for students enrolled in hospitality programs at North Carolina colleges and universities. Auction items will be available only on the day of the auction, so come prepared to get your holiday shopping done early! Please plan to bring your spouse and friends for this exciting event and encourage any other businesses that may be interested to participate. Thank you for your support!

Please bring cash or checks to pay for auction items. TAHMA does not accept credit cards or send invoices for Auction items!
